Jazz guitarist Hajime Yoshida's debut album Unlimitation is a personal expression of his musical life. Throughout Unlimitation, Yoshida interweaves sing-able melodies with complicated harmony, providing a rich landscape for him and his fellow band members to explore through improvisation.

Originally from Chiba, Japan, Yoshida has resided in Brooklyn, NY, since 2009, where he has been honing his performing and composing skills through many diverse encounters with other musicians from all backgrounds and cultures. These influences have helped Yoshida find his own unique sound, both as a guitarist and as a composer. Yoshida's time in the New York City area is also how he developed musical relationships with the musicians featured on Unlimitation with him: Sylvester Onyejiaka on tenor saxophone, Yuka Tadano on bass, and Keita Ogawa on drums.
